Ward 6 – House Fire – 100 Block of North 1st Avenue

May 31, 2009

Dispatch Time – 1131
On-Scene Time – 1138
Under Control – 1149

There was one call to 911 reporting smoke in the neighborhood. Firefighters arrived to find light smoke in the area, but were unsure of where the smoke was coming from. After investigating further, they found a shed completely engulfed in flames. The fire was spreading to a storage room connected to the back of a home. The elderly female who lives there was not home at the time. She was not displaced since there was a minimal amount of smoke that entered the home.

No injuries occurred.

Red Cross was not needed.

Origin – metal shed located approximately 5 feet away from this home.

Cause – Under investigation

Damage estimate - $35,000

Safety Message: Be aware of the types of materials you are storing in and around your home. Keep them in their original containers and follow the manufacturer's instructions on how to safely use and store them.
